NOTICE.

State of Maine.

TREASURY OFFICE,
AUGUSTA, August 27, 1838.

HEREBY give notice, that all the Notes for Bounty on Wheat, &c., held by the several Towns against the State, bearing date March 12, 1838, payable March 12, 1839, will be paid on presentation at this office. The Treasurers of the respective Towns may forward their notes by mail or private conveyance, for which checks will be remitted as follows, viz:

For the Counties of York, Cumberland and Oxford on Portland.

For the Counties of Penobscot, Waldo, and Hancock, on Bangor.

For the Counties of Kennebec, Lincoln and Somerset, on Augusta and Hallowell.

For the County of Washington, on Calais.

Further notice is hereby given, that all notes dated and payable as above, which have been disposed of by the towns, and are now held by individuals or corporations, will be paid in the month of October next, of which notice will be given hereafter.

J. B. CAHOON, Treasurer.

All the papers printed in the State, are requested to publish the above three weeks. aug31

STATE OF MAINE.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled.

RESPECTFULLY represent the undersigned, your petitioners, that the public interest would be much promoted by the erection of a bridge over the Penobscot river at Great works Falls (so called) where there are large and increasing milling establishments and villages, on each side of the river. And they further represent that the erection of a bridge over the Penobscot river at that place would greatly convenience the inhabitants at the villages of Upper and Lower Stillwater, and the travelling public generally, who have occasion to travel up and down the Penobscot river, by the State and Military roads, and that the prospect of an ultimately free communication through the great thoroughfare from Bangor to Houlton is of the highest importance to the interests of the community and the State, and that the erection of a free bridge over the Penobscot river on that route, during the present impoverished and distressed condition of the country, is bitterly hopeless.

Wherefore your petitioners respectfully petition for an Act of Incorporation to erect a bridge over the Penobscot river, at said Great-works Falls, between Orono and Bradley with the right to take toll at such rates as you in your wisdom may deem reasonable, until the tolls received shall amount to the first cost of the bridge, interest on the same, and expenses of repair, after which the bridge shall become a free bridge, with such further provisions as may be deemed suitable and necessary. As in duty bound will ever pray.

NATH'L TREAT, and 57 others.

STATE OF MAINE.

In House of Representatives, March 5, 1838.

On the Petition aforesaid, Ordered, That the Petitioners cause an attested copy of their Petition, with this order thereon, to be published in the Eastern Argus, a paper published at Portland, and the Whig and Courier, a paper published at Bangor, thirty days at least before the first Wednesday of the next Legislature, that all persons interested may then appear and shew cause, (if any they have) why the prayer of said Petition should not be granted.

Read and accepted.

Sent up for concurrence.

S. H. ALLEN, Speaker.

In Senate, March 5, 1838.

Read and concurred.

N. S. LITTLEFIELD, President.

A true copy. Attest: WM. TRAFTON,

SO FAR SO GOOD. The news from Philadelphia is glorious the Whigs there have done nobly. The majority for Ritner in the city is 4044 a gain of 1283 since the election of 1837. The vote is, for Ritner, 7200 Porter 3156 The U. States Gazette says, it is the largest vote and the largest majority ever given in Philadelphia. Every Ward in the city gave Ritner a majority. In 1835, Mr. Ritner had a majority over Wolf and Muhlenberg of 1890, making a clear gain in the city alone of 2,155. Of course the whole ticket nominated by the whig city conference, Congress, Senate, Assembly, Sheriff, Commissioners, Auditors, Connolly, &c is carried.

LATER NEWS.

The mails of this morning bring us the following additional intelligence respecting the election

PENNSYLVANIA. Returns have been received from 24 counties giving the following results: Ritner 19,100 Porter 14,021, the same counties gave last year 6313 W. and 7002 V. B showing a net Whig gain the present year of 733 votes. The members elected to the Assembly are 37 Whig and 31 Van-Buren bring in the aggregate no change from last year. Of eighteen members of Congress ascertained to be elected the Whigs [illegible] gain of two from the last election viz a Whig gain in Districts 3, 10, and 12, and a loss in District 5.

The final result of the Gubernatorial election is uncertain. The United States Gazette says, "All eyes are now turned to the west. We are afraid she will be unable to meet the heavy responsibilities which the eastern part of the State has thrown upon her; that she will give Ritner a heavy majority we are certain; but whether she can elect him, another day will enable us to decide."

The National Gazette of Thursday evening says, "It is conceded on all hands that the chief reliance of the Whig party has been on gains in the western counties. The strong holds of the opposition have displayed their entire force, and if that section of the State which remains to be heard from, has given such a majority as we may reasonably estimate, Gov. Ritner is re-elected, and our Congressional delegation increased in opposition to the national executive."

GEORGIA. Returns from Georgia continue to look favorable for the Whig cause. In 57 counties the Whig majority is 4140 showing a net gain of 904. Mr. Dawson, a thoroughgoing and decided Whig, runs ahead of the entire ticket.

NEW JERSEY. In this State the Whigs have probably elected a majority in both branches of the Legislature, and have a majority of seven in joint ballot. The result of the Congressional ticket is not so certain, full returns not having been received from the western part of the State. The New York Express of Friday evening says, "Our best calculators divide in opinion upon New Jersey. The vote will be so close that only the official returns can decide."

The Argus has published a letter purporting to be from Gov. Kent to certain Indians at Old Town. Whether it is a correct copy or not, we do not know, but as there has been some talk of late about the difficulties in the Penobscot tribe, we think this a good opportunity to state summarily, the facts, as we understand them. It is known to most of our readers that a difficulty has existed for several years in the tribe, in relation to their Government. By the ancient and established laws and customs of the tribe, the Governor and Lieutenant Governor, were elected for life, and at each election a deputation from at least two friendly tribes were called in to give their assent and to induct them into office. A part of the tribe became dissatisfied, and have been in favor of abrogating the old law and of electing their officers yearly, or for a limited time. This division has created two parties, bitterly hating and resisting each other. Deputations from each party have attended the Legislature for several years past, each urging their own claims. A year or two since, the new party proceeded to elect a Governor, but his election has never been considered of any validity, as the other tribes were not called in. During the present season, however, a deputation from Passamaquoddy and St John tribes, appeared at Old Town to consider and advise what course should be taken. A council was held, and the result was, that the Passamaquoddy tribe were in favor of electing a new Governor, St John tribe opposed. The new party, however, with their friends from Passamaquoddy determined to proceed. The other party became much enraged and the Indians threatened to spill each other's blood. In this state both parties came to Governor Kent, and after hearing them, he advised them to stop further proceedings at present that the Passamaquoddy and St. Johns Indians should give their advice in writing and that when the Council met he would endeavor to have measures taken so that the Penobscot tribe should meet and vote on the question, thus if a majority were in favor of a new organization, then the other tribes should be called in and a new Governor elected. To this, both parties assented, and agreed to abide by his advice. But after returning to Old Town, Sabattis Nicolar the "agitator" from Passamaquoddy, proceeded anew, and started to argue the other party said if they did proceed they would fight to the death and the Indian Agent [illegible] actually in preventing it. Gov. Kent [illegible] letters to the Indians, telling them [illegible] they did [illegible] that strong language [illegible] diers [illegible] that there must be no fighting, and if there was any he should [illegible] force with the Sheriff to take them all off. This declaration had the desired effect. And it is admitted by all who understand the situation of affairs, that the fear of immediate arrest and punishment alone, prevented a deadly and fatal Indian fight.

☞ We published a few days since an account of the murder of the crew of the brig Alna of Portland by the Indians on the Florida coast. We now have the gratifying intelligence that two of them (Wyer and Cammett) have been picked up on the rocks, where it is supposed they swam to escape from the Indians. Wyer was shot through the hand and leg. The particulars which follow, are given by Capt. Howard of the Revenue Cutter Madison, who arrived at Brunswick, Geo. from the Florida coast, on the 4th inst.

"The boats of the U. S. schrs. Madison, Wave and Campbell, examined the keys in the vicinity of the cape, in the hope of rescuing survivors, but we regret to say that, with the exception of the two survivors of the Alna, none are known to be saved. The boats of the Wave and Campbell attacked a party of 15 Indians, who were [illegible] French brig, but succeeded in killing but four of their number.

The Madison brings the further intelligence of the loss of the schr Forest of Lubec, loaded with live oak She struck on the reef about the 18th ult one day out of Key West, and sunk. The crew and passengers returned to Key West in the boats.

The works left by the troops at Key Biscayne, were burnt by the Indians about the last of August. [illegible] commencement hospitals and barracks on Cape Sable have also been burnt.

The Mail Steamer now on her way from Pensacola, to her station at Portsmouth, N. H. Officers and crew all well. She has stopped at this port for wood and water, and sails immediately. I have on board my vessel, Eleazer Wyer and Stephen Cammett, both of Portland, survivors of the crew of brig Alna, murdered by the Indians.

"OWL'S HEAD" All who have visited this place in the summer season, know what a delightful situation it is, as a resort for the invalid or for the man of pleasure. The gentlemanly and accommodating host, Mr. Paddleford, the rich fare he provides, the pure and invigorating air, the enchanting scenery, the pleasant fishing ground, the delightful rides from Owl's Head to the neighboring towns and villages, every thing, in fact, renders it one of the pleasantest places for a summer residence that can be found no matter where. These being the facts, we regret to learn that such is the situation of the property, that the present popular landlord will be obliged to leave unless a company can be formed to purchase the house. We hope an effort will be made to retain the present keeper of the house, who understands so well the wants of his visitors, and possesses in so eminent a degree the faculty of giving general satisfaction

The Steamer Bangor, under the command of that deservedly popular officer, Capt. S. H. Howes, touches at Owl's Head four times a week, to land and receive passengers, on her trips to and from Portland.

The Boston Patriot in publishing the correspondence between Gov. Kent and Lt. Gov Harvey, says, "It will be perceived that by the very judicious course pursued by Gov Kent of Maine, he is likely to obtain the object proposed by the Resolve of the Legislature of that State, by procuring such a survey as is necessary for explaining the claim of the State, in relation to the line of Boundary, without any opposition on the part of the local authorities. Such a result will be of great importance to the future discussions of the question, by settling some questions of fact which now rest upon disputed authority."

FIRE. The house, barn and outbuildings, farming utensils, &c. of Mr Charles Mitchell, in Newfield, was destroyed by fire on the 6th inst.

Mr. Seth Allen of Bath was killed on board of the U. S. ship North Carolina by the falling of a "bolsterer" which hit him on the head.

ARRIVAL OF THE ROYAL WILLIAM.

The steamship Royal William arrived at N. York on Wednesday forenoon, having left Liverpool Sept. 20. bringing Liverpool papers to that date and London papers to the 19th. She brought 68 passengers.

The weather continued favorable for the harvest to the 19th, on which day it rained. The prices of wheat were without much change, but the averages continued at the high rates, the duty on wheat was reduced at the lowest rate and the whole stock in bond would be admitted for consumption. The cotton market was dull; but holders had not permitted prices to decline.

The Coronation of the Emperor of Austria, at Milan, took place on the 7th with a showy and imposing ceremony, and a splendid procession.

The news from Spain, with the exception of the revolution in the ministry, is unimportant It was reported that Don Carlos had received a remit to his finances in the sum of £200,000 from the Emperor of Russia.

Mrs Charles Kemble died on the 3d, in the 65th year of her age.

The Charlestown papers announces the death of Mr. Hibbert, the mate of the Pulaski who escaped in a boat, with Mrs. Nightingale and others, on the wrecking of that vessel, and who had survived the fury of the waves a few months to fall under the withering hand of disease.

[PUBLISHED BY REQUEST.]

Introductory remarks, extracted from the Charge of the Grand Jury, at the opening of the Court, at Dover, Sept. 18, 1838.

Gentlemen of the Grand Jury Since the commencement of the present year, a new County in the State has established the County of Piscataquis, which has organized under its authority, and we are now assembled in it for the first time for the administration of justice. Many interesting reflections rush upon us, that would not accord with the object of our meeting to indulge and contemplate, in their fullest extent, at this time; but we cannot remain indifferent spectators of what passes around us. A proper attention to passing events gives enlarged views of duty and enables us better to comprehend and discharge it.

The occasion reminds us of the progress, which the settlement and improvement of the country is making under all the disadvantages and embarrassing circumstances, that have attended it. In 1820 there were but three counties, York, Cumberland, and Lincoln, in all the territory included in the State In that year two others, Hancock and Washington were added The number has now increased to twenty, and a large portion of the State capable of forming many others, still remains a wilderness, to be subdued and settled by the persevering energy, industry, enterprise of the hardy yeomanry of our country. We may therefore, look for successive formations of new counties for many years, yet to come, should prosperity and success attend us — to ensure which must depend on the sobriety, industry and virtue of the people the preservation of freedom and union the stability of our institutions and willing submission to, and obedience of the laws by which we are governed.

I congratulate the inhabitants of the new County on the establishment of an [illegible] which no doubt has been looked for with interest, and they have my best wishes, that their anticipations may be more than realized. The county is formed in the interior, and the occupation of its inhabitants will probably be mostly Agricultural, which usually produces a sober, industrious and moral people, with habits averse to quarrels, law suits, and crimes, which too frequently agitate and disturb the peace and harmony of communities, of less regular habits and employment In commencing with a new county it is hoped they will better consult their own interest, than to waste their time, property, and efforts in unprofitable controversies and law suits, which excite the basest passions, engender the worst feelings, and are always attended with unhappy and sometimes the most ruinous consequences. Courts of law are now established among them, but the less business the people furnish them to do, the better they will promote their own prosperity. Large dockets and long terms of Courts, are not evidence of the best state of morals in the community, where they originate. Having had some experience, I have no hesitation in recommending to the people of this County in assuming their new relations, to cultivate peace, harmony, social feelings, and a spirit of accommodation; and should misunderstandings unhappily arise among individuals, that they endeavor to compromise and settle among themselves, if practicable, if not call in the aid of friends and neighbors, and have as few law suits as possible. This course is the least expensive, attended with less waste of time, and will avoid much of the animosity and heart burnings, which commonly attend prosecutions at law, and frequently create lasting enmities that sometimes descend to the posterity of the litigants. Such controversies frequently ruin the fair prospects and property of one of the parties and sometimes of both Litigation indulged, is a kind of legal gambling, that leads to ruin Parties should always reflect on consequences before they engage in it, and not deceive themselves by thinking litigation cheap because fees are reduced it is all delusion It may be cheap getting into law, but parties will find to their sorrow, it will be expensive enough before they get out of it

The evils of litigation have been long seen and lamented, but to afford a remedy has hitherto perplexed the wisest Statesmen, Jurists and Philanthropists Some well meaning persons have sought it in legislation but without success. Legislation cannot prevent litigation; its too frequent attempts rather increase, than diminish it. The Legislature may enact penalties to prevent it, and courts of law may enforce them; but this does not prevent its existence. The fault is not so much in the law, or courts established by it, as in the intractable, litigious disposition of the parties. The best digested code of laws, and the most judiciously constituted tribunals will not prevent litigation and crimes, among an unprincipled, litigious and vicious people. They may prosecute, convict, and inflict punishment, but active repetition outstrips the tardy progress of the law. The experiment would be like that of the invalid, who indulges in every excess and exposure, relies on medicine to restore and preserve his health. The remedy lies beyond the reach of legislation. It is only to be found in self-control and discipline of the individuals themselves, and there it can be effected. Self government, a disciplined, an well regulated disposition, with the practical obedience of the golden rule of doing to others as we would have others do to us, will do more to prevent litigation, than all statutes, legislatures can pass, and all the aid, courts of law can render by enforcing them.

In this connexion we see the importance of Education in the most extended meaning of the term, which consists of early, correct and well timed instruction and discipline, with practical and progressive improvement, carried into life in all its relations. The want of it is the cause of much evil in the world. It was a true saying of an ancient philosopher, "that the loss, which the Commonwealth sustains by a want of Education, is like the loss the year would suffer by the destruction of spring."

THE TURK AND THE ENGLISHMAN.

A Mr. Urquhart, who has travelled extensively, and resided for many years, in eastern countries, has lately published a book of his adventures and observations, in which we find the subjoined curious antithetical portraiture of Turks and Englishmen.

Europeans commemorate the laying of the foundation stone; Turks celebrate the covering in of the roof. Among the Turks, a beard is a mark of dignity; with us, of negligence. Shaving the head is, with them, a custom; with us, a punishment. We take off our gloves before our sovereign; they cover their hands with their sleeves. We enter an apartment with our head uncovered; they enter an apartment with the feet uncovered. With them the men have their necks and their arms naked; with us, women have their arms and necks naked. With us, the women parade in gay colors, and the men in sombre, with them, in both cases, it is the reverse. With us, the men ogle the women, in Turkey, the women ogle the men. With us, [illegible] the gentleman. In [illegible] kiss cannot [illegible] a gentleman; in Turkey, she can. In Turkey, a gent[illegible] can. There, the ladies always wear trowsers, and the gentlemen sometimes wear petticoats. With us, hat is the symbol of liberty; with them, it is the hat. In our room, the roof is painted the wall is colored; with them, the wall is white and the roof is colored. In Turkey, there are gradations of social rank without privileges; in England, there are privileges without corresponding social distinction. With us, social forms and etiquette supersede domestic ties; with them, the etiquette of relationship supersedes that of society. With us, the schoolmaster appeals to the authority of the parent; with them, the parent has to appeal to the superior authority and responsibility of the schoolmaster. With us, a student is punished by being [illegible] to chap[illegible] with them, a [illegible] is punished by being excluded from the [illegible] Their children have the manners of [illegible] the manners of children. Among us [illegible] feminine characters with their ser[illegible]; in Turkey, servants inquire into the character of masters. We employ dancing as a polite recreation; they consider it a disgraceful avocation.

In Turkey, re[illegible] restraining the formation of political [illegible] In England, the government imposes taxes for religion. In England, the religion of the State exacts contributions from [illegible]tarians; in Turkey, the religion of the State protects the property of sectarians against government taxes. An Englishman will be astonished at what he calls the absence of public credit in Turkey; the Turk will be amazed at our national debt. The first will despise the Turks for having no organization to facilitate exchange; the Turk will be astounded to perceive in England, laws to impede the circulation of commerce. The Turk will wonder how a government can be carried on with divided opinions; the Englishman will not believe that without opposition, indeed [illegible] In Turkey, contention may exist without difficulty; in England, disaffection exists without commotion. A European, in Turkey, will consider the administration of justice delicate; a Turk, in Europe, will consider the principles of the law unjust. The first, would esteem property, in Turkey, insecure against violence: the second, would consider property, in England, insecure against law. The first, would marvel how, without lawyers, law can be administered; the second, would marvel how, with lawyers, justice can be obtained. The first, would be startled at the want of a check upon the central government; the second, would be amazed at the absence of control over the [illegible] administration. We, cannot conceive immutability in the principles of the State compatible with well-being, they, cannot conceive that what is good and just is capable of change.

The Englishman, will esteem the Turk unhappy because he has no public amusements; the Turk, will reckon the man miserable who lacks amusements at home. The Englishman, will look on the Turk as destitute of taste, because he has no pictures; the Turk will consider the Englishman destitute of feeling, from his disregard of nature. The Turk, will be horrified at prostitution and bastardy, the Englishman, at polygamy. The first, will be disgusted at our haughty treatment of our inferiors, the second, will revolt at the purchase of slaves. They will reciprocally call each other fanatic in religion dissolute in morals uncleanly in habits unhappy in the development of their sympathies and their tastes destitute severally of political freedom. each will consider the other unfit for good society. The European, will term the Turk pompous and sullen; the Turk, will call the European flippant and vulgar. It may therefore be imagined, how interesting, friendly, and harmonious, must be the intercourse between the two.

Truths worthy of Reflection. In copying the following from the Richmond Whig, the reader will be struck with the forcible truths compressed in a short space - Our hope of saving the country rests on the defeat of Van Buren:

If the Administration, after its flagitious and mischievous career, shall triumph, it will be the triumph of the Government over the people The opposition of the latter will, in all time be unavailing against the patronage of the Executive and the machinations of the office holders Nothing short of the sword will be able to absolve them from the corruption and despotism to which they will be subjected The Loco Foco Dynasty will be fixed upon the country and they may with much reason conclude, that if their past abominations shall secure to them only popular favor and support, any which they may in future perpetrate will scarcely draw down upon them reprobation and punishment. They have already asserted the claim of irresponsibility to the Representatives of the People, and refused to permit their official conduct to be investigated by them. Sustained again, their terms of office prolonged, under these circumstances, their insolence would know no bounds, and their official profligacy would outstrip their insolence! They would feel, that they had a new license for renewed, and enlarged depredation upon the public, and they would indulge it without a scruple of conscience, without a sense of shame, and (the only check to the wicked,) without a fear of punishment. They would hoot at the idea of official responsibility, and ridicule and contemn any effort which might be made to subject them to any law. Amenable alone to their master the President, devoted to his interests, there would be no power in the Republic to molest them or make them afraid They would constitute a class preying upon and eating out the substance of the people, unrestrained by considerations of fear or patriotism The only object of their official labours would be to grasp as much as they could get; and the only limitation to their rapacity would be the capacity of the people to pay and tamely endure their exactions.

For ten years the people have been kept in ignorance of the actual condition of public affairs. They know not whether their business has been well or badly managed, whether their money has been stolen or lavished on favorites and partizans, or wisely and economically appropriated. Their representatives have been unable to ascertain these matters for them. If they shall be so blind to their own interests as to continue the present functionaries in office, they may well despair of ever obtaining a peep into the dark recesses of the various departments for at least another ten years.

DR. BRANDRETH'S GENUINE PILLS

Doctor Sangrado's system still—
Lives in the world, to kill, to kill!

THIS system does indeed live still, and is practised by the very men who laugh at Doctor Sangrado as a visionary fool. The immaculate Faculty!!—It is this really impressed upon every mind that all pain and weakness proceed from the presence of morbid, stagnant and corrupt humors IN THE BODY by which the circulation of the blood is impeded, and that the only sensible method is to remove them from the stomach & bowels, then take Brandreth's Pills, concocted forth

From the pure products of the earth;
They own no alien and alloy,
They often save, but never destroy!

BLEEDING ALWAYS IMPROPER.

"For the life of the flesh is in the blood." Levitious, chapter xvii, v. 14. When the properties of BRANDRETH'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS shall have been appreciated, bleeding will no longer be thought of as a remedy for diseases for in violent inflammations, eight or ten of them will take, in the course of two or three hours, more of the impure humors from the body by the stomach and bowels, than bleeding to the extent of forty ounces could possibly have done, and it should be remembered that the Pills remove ONLY those parts from the blood which were the cause of inflammation; whereas bleeding removes the essential parts also. How great the prostration of all the corporeal powers after a copious bleeding! On the contrary, what agility and strength is felt after a dose of this medicine; the body is indeed lightened of a load. Nothing is equal to ridding the vitiated humors with a vegetable medicine of this kind, which 84 years have proved never to do injury, but always good. Is the pulse too high? A dose of these Pills will bring it down. Is it too low? the same means will increase it to a proper standard. Is it tremulous, showing nervous excitement? the Pills, by touching the system will allay it.

Thousands of the most respectable citizens of the United States will be referred to with pleasure by Dr. B. who have for many years been in the habit of being bled as often as four times in a year; and whose constitutions in consequence were becoming weaker and weaker, but who, since they have made use of these Pills, have never lost a drop of their precious blood. When any of their old symptoms appeared, instead of running to a Doctor and having a vein opened, they have swallowed six or eight Pills, which soon removed the vitiated humors that were impeding the blood in its circulation. Those sensible people simply by the use of these invaluable Pills, are increasing every day the powers both of body and mind, which by the practice of bleeding were both becoming dreadfully impaired.

The following cases of cure, by the use of Brandreth's Pills, alone, are submitted with respect, to the unprejudiced portion of the Boston Public:

ASTHMA CURED. The following extraordinary case of Asthma, which is authenticated by seventeen respectable and well known inhabitants of Greenwich, Ct., deserves, by all persons, a careful perusal. The most prejudiced must own that evidence is on the side of these Pills, which, by the cures they are daily making show there is no necessity for any other medicine.

This is to certify that Thomas S. Brown of Greenwich, Ct., was taken with a cold, numb feeling, on the 17th of June last. He began to cough and raise phlegm and in the course of twenty-four hours about two quarts of thick white jelly was expectorated. Three physicians in Stamford, Greenwich, and Sawpits, pronounced it a nervous humid spasmodic Asthma, and after prescribing for some time to no effect, the three consulted together, and finally declared that they could do him no good; it would and must result in consumption, and death would ensue, and that in a very short time. The pain was excessive in all parts of his body, and the difficulty in breathing was such as almost to cause strangulation. He was reduced to a mere skeleton, and finally gave himself up to death. After being in this miserable state nearly two months, he saw an advertisement of Dr. Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills, and immediately sent by Capt. J. Waring of Greenwich, for a box, and found relief in the course of a few days, which encouraged him to persevere, and now having taken them for about four months according to the direction, is entirely recovered, and so far as we can judge, in consequence of taking the above Pills, which we have also used in our families, and have found them invaluable.

Signed. Greenwich, 22d Feb. 1836.

James R. Mead, Daniel S. Betts, John H. Reynold, A. Palmer, Rev. R. Palmer, J. R. Palmer, H. Brewsley, S. Jessup, James Moore, Hannah Hitchcock, J. Mead, Thos Bertram, Isaac Olmstead, P. V. T. Jessup, Stephen Waring, John Limbry.

Certificate of John Goulden, who has known the above pills forty years:

I hereby certify that I have known Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pill for upwards of forty years they were used by my family connections, in the county of Dorset, England, since the year 1796, many of whom they cured of old standing complaints. JOSEPH GOULDEN.

Bridgeport, Feb. 18, 1836.

Certificate of cure of CHOLICS, FITS, &c. &c. From a BOSTONIAN, whose address is at the foot.

[TRUE COPY.]

To Dr Benj. Brandreth:

My dear Sir. I write a few lines to inform you that I have been making use of your Vegetable Universal Pills. I have been afflicted with a complaint supposed to be caused by PAINT. I was subject to a great coldness through my whole system, attended with frequent pain and severe cholics; for the year, I have also been subject to fits, which would seize me in the night, and when I have come to myself, I have been as weak as a child. I am ready to state the facts more particularly, and how the medicine acted upon me, at my residence No. 17 Sudbury street, to any one who wishes to inquire.

I feel the medicine has been of very great service and that the diseases under which I laboured have been by it ENTIRELY REMOVED, for which I shall ever feel grateful to Providence and to you.

Believe me to remain,
Very respectfully,
JOHN LUMMUS.

A VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

The half of the PHILIPSBURGH ESTATE, situated in Centre, Clearfield, and Cambria Counties, in the State of Pennsylvania, with all the improvements thereon, is now offered for sale.

THIS Estate contains about SEVENTY THOUSAND ACRES of Land VERY HEAVILY TIMBERED, and in the HEART of the BITUMINOUS COAL FIELD, upon which are already established a FORGE for the manufacture of bar iron, with all the necessary appendages. An excellent and well constructed SAW MILL, a SCREW FACTORY, with improved machinery, in which wood screws of all sizes are manufactured. A ROLLING MILL, for the rolling of iron into round rods for wire drawing, with AIR FURNACE for heating the blooms. An ANNEALING HOUSE, a BUILDING with a FURNACE and MACHINE for heading rail road screws. A PATTERN HOUSE, containing numerous patterns for casting machinery. A CUPOLA FURNACE, where the machinery of the screw factory is cast, and an extensive country business carried on. A BUILDING containing a TILT-HAMMER and SHEARS for cutting iron. A MANAGER'S HOUSE & OFFICE, and BOARDING HOUSE for workmen. A valuable GRIST MILL, worked by steam power.

Also, the PROPRIETOR'S HOUSE, beautifully situated, seventy-six feet in front, with spacious piazzas front and rear, and possessing every convenience calculated for a gentleman's residence. A LARGE AND SUBSTANTIALLY BUILT BRICK HOTEL, in the town, with all the requisite out-buildings. A WELL BUILT STONE HOUSE, forty-two by twenty four feet, with the land adjoining. A LARGE STORE HOUSE calculated for an extensive country business. FIVE COTTAGES in the village with gardens attached. A FARM HOUSE with a spacious and well constructed Barn, Granary and out-buildings, and one hundred and fifty acres of highly cultivated meadow land adjoining. The whole estate is abundantly supplied with springs of excellent water, and streams, with water power sufficient for saw mills, grist mills, forges, furnaces, &c. It is situated on the Moshannon and Clearfield Creeks, about ten miles from the river Susquehanna on the north to which the Moshannon and Clearfield Creeks afford navigable outlets in time of freshets and about twenty five miles from the PENNSYLVANIA CANAL on the southeast, to which a highly favorable route is presented for the construction of a Rail Road to the JUNIATA DIVISION of the Pennsylvania Canal, through a portion of Huntington County, abounding in IRON ORE, of the finest quality, where a number of forges and furnaces have been long established, but which are labouring under difficulties from the WANT OF THIS COAL. A charter has been obtained for the construction of the rail road, THE LOCATION OF WHICH IS COMPLETED, and the estimates furnished, preparatory to a commencement of the work. The distance from the COAL MINES to the CANAL is only twenty eight miles.

The MAGNIFICENT TIMBER upon this estate, consists of all the varieties usually found in Pennsylvania, but the WHITE PINE, which is MORE PARTICULARLY ABUNDANT, is of the largest description, fit for MASTS SPARS, PANNEL BOARDS, &c. and of an EXCELLENT QUALITY. The BITUMINOUS COAL is found in every hill, in veins of various thickness, viz: four feet two inches, six feet and nine feet, and there are two, three or four veins in a hill according to its elevation. The quality varies, in different situations FROM THE HIGHEST BITUMINOUS SOFT COAL, CLOSELY RESEMBLING the NEWCASTLE COAL OF ENGLAND, to a much harder and heavier Coal containing less bitumen. LIME STONE, FIRE CLAY and IRON STONE have been discovered accompanying some of the measures, and will doubtless be found in the general, upon a proper examination. A HIGHLY FAVORABLE CHARTER has been granted by the Legislature of Pennsylvania, containing MINING, MANUFACTURING and TRANSPORTING PRIVILEGES for a period of SIXTY YEARS, authorizing a company to hold this estate in a corporate capacity, and to convey to market its vast resources.

Family circumstances however, having occurred, to prevent the proprietor from individually accomplishing this important enterprise, he would be willing to sell, ON LIBERAL TERMS, the whole property to a respectable company, who would carry out the provisions of the charter, to whom, of course, he would transfer all its privileges, or he would sell the estate in tracts, to suit the convenience of purchasers.

The title to this Estate is INDISPUTABLE, and the SALUBRITY of the CLIMATE is proverbial. Taking into consideration, therefore, the immense quantity of the HEAVY and VALUABLE TIMBER upon this estate, the presence of IRON ORE, the INEXHAUSTIBLE supplies of BITUMINOUS COAL, so essential in the GENERATION OF STEAM, the PRODUCTION of GAS, and for domestic purposes and the arts in general, its ADVANTAGEOUS POSITION, with regard to its communication with the SEA BOARD, its IMMEDIATE PROXIMITY to a region ABOUNDING in the RICHEST IRON ORE, in which the WANT OF FUEL is already productive of serious inconvenience; considering also, the highly favorable location of the rail road, intersecting the Pennsylvania canal, and thus affording the choice of both the Eastern and Western markets, and taking into view the many HOUSES, BUILDINGS, MANUFACTURING ESTABLISHMENTS, CLEARED and CULTIVATED LAND, thus enabling the enterprising company to commence their operations, without incurring the HEAVY EXPENDITURE of money, and the DELAY incident to new establishments, it is confidently believed that a rare opportunity is now presented for the SAFE and PROFITABLE investment of capital.

For further particulars application may be made either personally or by letter, POST PAID, to Samuel Corp Esq New-York John C. Montgomery Esq Philadelphia John Nortis, Esq. Brown's Mills Mifflin county, Penn. or to
